ATKINSON WILL GO At Once To The Azores FOR IMMIGRANTS

SECRETARY CABLES HIS ACCEPTANCE

A. L. C. Atkinson cables from Washington the Territorial Board of Immigration that he accepts the mission to the Azores in search of 5,000 Portuguese agricultural families to come to Hawaii, and that he will go at once.

Immigration Commissioner J. P. Cooke this morning received a cablegram from the Territorial Secretary and Chairman of the Territorial Board of Immigration to the effect that he had received the letter of instructions sent by the Board in regard to the work preliminary to securing the desired immigrants and that, accepting the duties set forth, he would depart upon the business immediately.

Mr. Cooke, at the regular meeting of the Board of Immigration at 8:30 o'clock this morning, notified his fellow commissioners of the receipt of the cable from their chairman. This was all the business done at the meeting. No action was necessary and none was taken beyond recording the fact that Mr. Atkinson had accepted.

Mr. Cooke did not deem it wise at the present time to give out the full text of the cable from Jack for publication. He stated that Mr. Atkinson had accepted the proposition and that he would lose no time in getting to the Azores and, possibly the Madeira Islands. Should he fail to find conditions either in the Azores or Madeira such as show good prospects of securing the required Portuguese families, the Territorial Secretary will probably go to Northern Italy and see what can be done there. It is thought, however, that he will have to go no further than the Azores.

Mr. Atkinson is expected back in Honolulu about the first of April. On his return the matter of sending a man to take charge of seeing that the immigrants get here will be settled by the Board. Atkinson will look up the matter of a steamship, for the transportation of the immigrants, in New York. As previously published, the shipment of laborers and future citizens will probably come by the Teahupoo route in July or August.

This morning J. P. Cooke, W. O. Smith, W. M. Giffard and Alexander Young, the latter incidentally were observed on the street in significant communion. These gentlemen represent immigration, plantation, steamship and general business interests and it is not every day that such representative street-corner confab is held. Business men in passing, turned with the remark: "Something doing!"

They may have been discussing the glorious future of Honolulu or they may have been debating the possibility of more rain, or they may have been talking of the cable from Jack.

REVENUE DELEGATION THIS AFTERNOON TO CONSULT GOVERNOR

The Washington delegation, W. O. Smith, G. W. Smith, M. P. Robinson, E. A. McInerney and J. R. Galt, are called to meet with Governor Carter in the Governor's office this afternoon, to discuss the details of the mission to the capital to urge revenue for Hawaii.

Chairman W. O. Smith this morning sent out calls to each member of the delegation to join him at the Governor's office, for consultation.

The matter of a press representative accompanying the delegation to Washington is at present all in the air, with George Henshall's name leading what talk there is for the proposition.

Said a member of the delegation this afternoon: "The matter has not been discussed at all; indeed, the members have had no consultation on anything to do with the trip. All I know is that we are to meet at the Governor's office at 2 o'clock this afternoon."

If the delegates have not discussed the matter of the press representative, outsiders have, and while many favor the idea they do not agree with a man who remarked this morning: "What! Take a press representative along! Why not also take a doctor and a nurse?"

Others have voiced similar sentiments. What the delegates think remains to be seen.

"That will probably be settled this afternoon," said one of the committee this forenoon.

JACK TO GO ALONE

Commissioner J. P. Cooke reported at a special meeting of the Board of Immigration this afternoon that Treasurer Hutchinson of Gonsalves & Co., who had been suggested as going to the Azores for laborers, had stated that he could not possibly go. Hutchinson thought no one but Secretary Atkinson would be needed in the preliminary work. Atkinson was this afternoon cabled to proceed alone. An assistant would be sent later if needed. He was asked to cable the date of his departure from the States for the Azores. Atkinson in his cable to the Board, received today, asked for Hutchinson as an assistant.

GLEGHORN SECURES DAVID'S AND CUPID'S INTERESTS

Deeds were yesterday filed for record whereby Governor A. S. Cleghorn acquires all the interest of David Kawanakoa and Jonah Kainanaloale in the belongings of the late Princess Likelike Miriam Cleghorn. In one deed Kawanakoa and Kainanaloale, in consideration of $50,000, sell to E. A. C. Long all their interest in the real estate and personal property of Likelike, the deed being acknowledged by their wives.

In the second deed the Kapiolani estate, Ltd., sells the above named property to Governor Cleghorn for the sum of $10,000, while E. A. C. Long, for the consideration of $1, releases all his interest therein, conveyed to him in the deed delivered him by Kawanakoa and Kainanaloale.

TALK OF CARTER JOINING DELEGATION

Geo. W. Smith, W. O. Smith, M. P. Robinson, E. A. McInerney and J. R. Galt, the members of the delegation selected to go to Washington, this afternoon at 2 o'clock held a conference with Governor Carter. G. W. Smith stated, before the conference began, that he did not know what the object of it was. He had been asked by W. O. Smith to attend. He thought a general discussion would take place.

There was talk down town this afternoon that Governor Carter might go on with the delegation, but he cannot very well do this with the Territorial Secretary away.

HAWAIIANS HANG ON TO THEIR LEIS

The Hawaiian custom of throwing leis to friends on shore whom they are leaving behind, perhaps forever, is still in evidence at the departure of all ocean vessels, but many of the tourists and other newcomers refuse to adopt the much-loved practice; they think too much of the beautiful flowers themselves and prefer to take them away. This fact is particularly noticeable when the boats are pulling out. The new-comers learn the custom by seeing the other people, Hawaiians and Honolulu residents, and in case they are fortunate enough to have friends at the wharf to see them off they get busy waving handkerchiefs or tipping their hats, but in the meantime hang onto the leis. Now and then a tourist will toss a wreath ashore, just for appearance's sake, but they do not do it as a rule. The distribution of leis at the steamers is a custom that is ever remembered by the people who visit the islands.

It takes some people longer to make up their mind than the size of the mind would seem to warrant.

Circuit Courts Have, Says Decision, Power To Naturalize

DISSENTING OPINION BY HARTWELL

The first dissenting opinion filed by the Supreme Court with its present personnel was rendered this morning in the famous Morita Kaizu case, in which the Court decided that the Circuit Courts have power to naturalize, Justice Hartwell dissenting. The syllabus is as follows:

Under the naturalization laws of the United States and the Organic Act the Circuit Courts of this Territory have power to naturalize.

Says the opinion of the court by Wilder, J., Hartwell, J., dissenting: Defendant was indicted for murder by a Grand Jury composed of sixteen members at the August, 1905, term of the Circuit Court of the Fourth Circuit. He filed a plea in abatement to the effect that eight of the members of the Grand Jury were aliens and therefore ineligible and incompetent to act. It appeared that some time between June 14, 1906, and August 1, 1905, each of said eight Grand Jurors being entitled to be naturalized applied for a judgment of naturalization to the Circuit Court of the Fourth Circuit, and upon such applications being considered the Court pronounced upon each of the applicants a judgment of naturalization.

The main question for decision is whether under the naturalization laws of the United States and the Organic Act of this Territory the Circuit Courts of this Territory have power to naturalize.

The relations between the Federal courts and the courts of this Territory are similar to those between Federal courts and state courts.

Congress not having established within this Territory the ordinary Territorial courts, and having provided a system similar to that in the several states, it follows that the jurisdiction to naturalize in this Territory should be and is the same as in a State, namely, by a court of record having common law jurisdiction and a seal and clerk. Each of our Circuit Courts is a court of record having common law jurisdiction and a seal and clerk. That this was the intention of Congress we have no doubt, when it is considered that Congress established in this Territory a District Court of the United States, the same as is established in every State of the Union, and which has, of course, power to naturalize.

The privilege of becoming an American citizen is a great one, but the number of courts with jurisdiction to naturalize should not be limited unless Congress expressly or by necessary intendment so provides. The tendency of Congressional legislation on the subject has been to enlarge rather than to diminish the number of courts which could naturalize.

There is also considerable force in the argument that the courts in this Territory having practically the same jurisdiction as the ordinary Territorial district courts, namely, the district court of the United States and the Circuit Courts of the Territory, have the power to naturalize.

Each of the three reserved questions is answered in the affirmative.

M. F. Prosser, Deputy Attorney General, for the Territory; Carl S. Smith, for defendant.

Opinion by Frear.

Not only is there no objection to the exercise of such jurisdiction by such Circuit Courts, for similar courts throughout the States and Territories exercise it, but it is particularly desirable that they should have it because in four of the five circuits of the Territory the Supreme Court cannot sit and in three the United States District Court does not sit and in one of the other two the latter court sits only once a year, although it is permitted by the statute to sit at other times and places; and such time and expense would be required for the attendance of applicants where such courts usually sit as would in many instances be prohibitive. Such jurisdiction has been exercised by the Circuit Courts ever since the establishment of Territorial Government and probably the majority, about a thousand, of naturalizations have been made.

SEA TOO ROUGH FOR CHRISTMAS DINNER

The United States gunboat Concord, Commander Clifford J. Boush, en route to Cavite to join the Asiatic fleet, arrived this morning and is docked at the Naval wharf. She will take on about 3000 tons of coal and probably leave for her station Saturday afternoon. She has a complement of 190 men and is a sister boat of the ill-fated Bennington. The Concord left Bremerton, Washington, where she had been for more than three months, December 14th, upon 12 hours' notice to sail at once for the Philippines.

The Concord left the coast in a storm which lasted three days. Heavy south-eastern gales were encountered and during the three days the speed of the vessel was greatly hindered. The sea was unusually rough and with the exception of two dozen men all the crew was seasick. On Christmas day no dinner was served, although it had been prepared. An elaborate spread was made ready but the sea continued to toss the boat about like a chip and only a few were able to eat. Those who had an appetite went to the galley and helped themselves. Many of the men have been to sea for years and never before experienced such rough weather.

The Concord has been in Honolulu before, some years ago. Seventeen men left here last week by the Lawton were taken aboard. During the Spanish-American war the Concord, at that time a cruiser, was at Manila when Dewey made his world-renowned reputation by destroying the enemy's fleet. The Concord has a tonnage of 1700, with 4000 horsepower, twin screws and her classification that of a gunboat. Her speed is 14 knots an hour. From the sound she averaged about 12 knots an hour, except during the storm.

The officers of the gunboat Concord are as follows: Commander, Clifford J. Boush; executive officer, Lieut. R. C. Moody; navigator, Lieut. Z. E. Briggs; chief engineer, Lieut. R. Woods; midshipmen, Lieuts. R. N. Nalle, A. K. Shoup, C. L. Hand, D. W. Bagley; water officers; surgeon, Dr. A. E. Peck, assistant paymaster, E. W. Wilson, Jr.; pay clerk, L. W. Farr.

Offer Of Molokans Says Pratt Exceeds Valuation

"The split between the Molokans, mentioned by Elder Shlykoff in his letter to the Governor, does not amount to anything and that part of the affair is not worrying us," said Land Commissioner Pratt this morning.

"The faction of Molokans who are with Philip Shubin, the other elder, and which wants to go to lands in Texas, is a very small fraction of the whole colony."

"Shubin's faction," continued Pratt, "consists of only 24 families, or about 200 people, which is only about one-fifth of the Molokan settlement at Los Angeles. As a matter of fact, Shubin's people and the rest of the Molokans are of different clans or tribes, whatever you might call it, who are bound together principally by having the same religion. The Shubin men are light-haired, more like Georgians, while the rest are dark and much different in appearance. One of these clans comes from a place much further north than the other, and their dialects are very different."

"I am not surprised that Shubin is not in favor of Kapas. While he was here he did not say much and did not appear much worked up over the prospects. Shlykoff, on the other hand, was very enthusiastic."

Pratt said further that he understood that considerable wireless telegraphing was being done between Spaulding and the parties here, and that an agreement seemed forthcoming very soon, possibly today. Should Castle and Spaulding come anywhere close to an agreement, Pratt, Spaulding and Thurston, the latter representing Castle, would leave for Los Angeles Friday, so as to deal directly with the Molokans, and get the matter arranged as speedily as possible. Pratt expected in this case to return Jan. 30.

With regard to the price offered by the Molokans, Pratt stated definitely that it was above the valuation placed on the Kapas lands by the appraisers.

TO SUE ON BOND FOR INSANE ASYLUM CONTRACT

Attorney General Peters has rendered an opinion in the matter of the Insane Asylum contract which was thrown up by the American-Hawaiian Engineering & Construction Co. because of a disagreement in connection with the specifications, which demanded that concrete blocks manufactured under a certain pressure should be used.

Holloway stated this morning that he could not give out the opinion. Action against the sureties who gave bonds for the satisfactory completion of the structure, would, however, be instituted some time this month. Bonds were given in the sums of $11,954, $394 and $767 for different parts of the work, aggregating over $13,000. The bondsmen are A. N. Campbell and Mr. Mason of Hilo.

David Rallo, charged with larceny in the second degree, today withdrew his plea of not guilty and substituted one of guilty. Sentence was suspended for three months.
